

WANTED!

Art Teachers, Lecturers, Performers

The Fremont Arts Council is calling ALL art teachers, gardeners, lecturers, performers---anyone with an art, performance, or craft subject to be shared---to participate in the Second Summer of

At the BELL TOWER

Courtyard Art, in partnership with the Florence Farmer's Market, proposes to share art with the community as well as relieving the COVID blues. Every Thursday from June 2 thru September 29, Courtyard Art will take place in the courtyard at the Bell Tower, 201 E Second St., Florence, between 9:30 and 11:30am. Thursdays in June and August 18 through September will be set aside for adult level classes, while classes in July and August 4 and 11, will be geared toward families with children age 5 and up. Cost to the participants is $5 per class/person. A value-added punch card will be offered at $25 for 6 classes. Pre-registration is recommended; drop-in participants will be welcomed when space is available. COVID restrictions observed.

New for 2022. Acoustic musicians needed to perform in the park at same hours and pay rate!

Workshop details are decided by each instructor. You may plan two hour-long sessions, a single two hour-long session, or a single one hour-long session. Teachers will be paid $20/hour and set the maximum and minimum number of students per session. Supplies may be available at the Bell Tower, or materials costs will be reimbursed. Give the participants something fun to learn and to take home with them. (No political or religious presentations.)
